What ongoing services are provided?

- Revision of your personal and financial situation at regular intervals, with reviews typically conducted every six months
- Discussion of whether our recommendations remain appropriate should your personal circumstances change or legislative or market environments alter
- Implementation of any recommendations made as part of our ongoing service to you

What do these services cost?

Multiforte operates on a flat fee basis and does not charge a percentage of assets fee. This means that our fee for advice is not determined by the amount of assets you have under our advice.

Importantly, Multiforte does not levy commissions on any products that we recommend.

All fees are payable to Multiforte. Prior to the commencement of any of the above services, a service agreement will be provided outlining the services you have requested and the payment method agreed upon. The available advice fee options are outlined below and may be paid with your own funds or deducted from your investment.

Initial advice fee options

- The fixed rate advice fee ranges between $2,500 and $20,000
- The hourly advice rate is $330 per hour

Implementation fee options

These costs cover the administrative time spent implementing the recommended strategies and products.

- The fixed rate advice fee ranges between $1,100 and $11,000.
- The hourly advice rate is $330 per hour.

Ongoing advice fee options

- The fixed rate advice fee ranges between $2,500 and $20,000 per annum.
- The hourly advice rate is $330 per hour.

Commissions

Ongoing commissions may be paid by life companies in circumstances where a client holds existing product/s and Multiforte is unable to have the commission amount refunded directly to the client's account. Insurance commissions are factored into the premium costs and range between 0% and 40% per annum of the renewal premium.

All applicable fees, any other payments or brokerage will also be fully detailed in the statement of advice you receive. All fees disclosed are inclusive of Goods and Services Tax.

How will you pay for the services provided?

Multiforte can be paid by various methods.

Your financial adviser will discuss and agree upon the method of payment with you before any financial services are provided.

In addition, where you receive personal advice, your statement of advice will outline all remuneration and any benefits associated with the advice provided.

How is Multiforte paid?

Multiforte is paid a flat fee on the basis of our agreement with you for the recommended financial services and/or products. Kate McCallum has equity in the business which may result in additional capital and profit related benefits.

Multiforte does not receive any payments from product providers for products we recommend.

Other benefits

Some product providers may offer Financial Masterplan, Multiforte or your financial adviser non-commission benefits such as entertainment or sponsorship. Financial Masterplan and your financial adviser maintain a register in line with industry standards to document any alternative forms of payment received. This register is publicly available and must be provided within 7 days of the request date.

Multiforte and Kate McCallum do not participate in industry benefits such as subsidised business equipment or short term incentive programs from product providers (eg. additional commissions for a specified period).

Where appropriate, we may refer you to an external service provider to assist you in specialist areas. We do not receive any referral fees or commissions for introducing you to another service provider.

Payments to other professionals

If a third party referred you to us we may forward referral payments to the third party. These amounts do not involve additional costs and will be disclosed in your statement of advice.

Does Financial Masterplan have any relationships or associations with financial product issuers?

No, neither Financial Masterplan nor Multiforte are aligned with any financial product issuers. As such, your financial adviser can provide advice on strategies and products from a wide range of financial product providers that, based on our research, meet our suitability and quality criteria.

What information should you provide to receive personalised advice?

Your financial adviser will complete a client questionnaire with you, which will record your personal objectives, lifestyle goals, details of your current financial situation and any relevant information.

The information obtained will be assessed by your financial adviser to assist them in providing appropriate advice.

You have the right to withhold personal information, but this may compromise the effectiveness of the advice you receive.

You should read any warnings contained in the client questionnaire and statement of advice carefully before making any decision relating to a financial strategy or product.

How can you give instructions to your financial adviser about your financial products?

You can contact your financial adviser directly with any instructions relating to your financial products.

What information is maintained in your file and can you examine the client file?

Your financial adviser will maintain a record of your personal information including details of your objectives and financial situation. Your financial adviser will also maintain a record of any recommendations made to you. If you wish to examine your file please ask your financial adviser and they will make arrangements for you to do so.

Who may access the information you provide?

Financial Masterplan, Multiforte and your financial adviser are committed to implementing and promoting a privacy policy, which will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information. Please ask your financial adviser if you wish to obtain a copy of the privacy policy.

It is important to note that in order to best meet your needs and provide you with financial services and advice, your financial adviser may need to disclose your personal information to other parties. Typically these parties may include fund managers, life companies, related entities and other licensees. Similarly your financial adviser may bring to your attention products and services or other information which may be relevant to your situation. You will be given the opportunity to choose whether you wish to receive such information.

Financial Masterplan and Multiforte reserve the right to appoint another financial adviser to ensure your ongoing needs are met. In these circumstances you will be advised in writing of the change.

What other documents might you receive?

You may also receive the following documents, designed to help you make an informed decision on any financial strategy or recommended product.

Strategy paper

Prior to preparing a full Statement of Advice (SoA), we may provide you with a Strategy Paper. This is personal advice that will discuss particular strategic options that are available to you. We will discuss this Strategy Paper with you before finalising your recommendations in a SoA.

Statement of advice (SoA)

All personal advice provided to you will be outlined in a SoA. The SoA will contain personal advice, the basis on which it is given, details of fees, commissions and information on relevant associations. The SoA is used for initial advice and any subsequent advice may be provided in the form of a record of advice, a statement of additional advice or another form of advice documentation.

Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)

You will receive a PDS if your financial adviser has provided advice on a particular product. A PDS will contain the key features of the financial product, significant risks and benefits, and fees associated with the financial product.

Professional indemnity insurance

Financial Masterplan, Multiforte and your financial adviser maintain professional indemnity (PI) insurance policies. These insurances cover advice, actions and recommendations which have been authorised by Financial Masterplan to be provided by your adviser. These arrangements satisfy the requirements imposed by the Corporations Act 2001 and financial services regulations.

What should you do if you have a complaint?

If you have any complaints about the services provided to you, or personal information held, you should take the following steps:

1. Contact your financial adviser and tell them about your complaint.
2. If your complaint is not satisfactorily resolved within three days, please contact Financial Masterplan on 02 9279 2300 or put your complaint in writing and send it to:
